TOWARDS A GRASSROOTS FOREIGN POLICY

This month's subject for Towards a Grassroots Foreign Policy is the Trilateral Partnership of Japan, N. America, and W. Europe, an alliance envisioned by the Trilateral Commission. The Trilateral Commission was founded by David Rockefeller and Zbigniew Brzezinski (current National Security Council Advisor to the President) as an elite group of private business and academic leaders from Japan, N. America, and W. Europe, what the Commission calls the "Advanced industrial democracies" and which are, according to Brzezinski, "The most essential component of the world's economy." The Commission was thrust into worldwide attention with the election of Jimmy Carter as President of the United States, and most of the top foreign policy positions in the Carter administration are filled by members or former members of the Trilateral Commission.

Much has been written about the conspiratorial aspects of the Commission, its Rockefeller connections, its role in electing "outsider" Carter. He will resist the temptation to go into this aspect, however, and focus on the merits themselves of trilateralism as a foreign policy, and the problems the trilateralists must overcome to succeed. These include disputes within and between the nations of the three regions, relations between them and the developing countries, and to some extent the East-West relations we discussed last month.

The first public forum in this cluster has already happened, but you can hear the tape at 9:30 Thursday Dec. 1 or 3:00 Friday Dec. 2. It concerns the future of European integration through the Common Market. The next two Tuesday forums will be:

Dec. 6: EUROCOMMUNISM AND THE FUTURE OF NATO: A QUESTION OF TRUST?

Speakers: Profs. Herbert Ellison, John Burke, and Michael Ziemann, Univ. of Wash. and James Mocer, U.S. Info. Agency (ret.).

Dec. 13: THE U.S., JAPAN, AND NORTHEAST ASIA: THE IMPLICATIONS OF KOREA.

Speakers: Profs. Donald Hellmann, James Palais, and Bruce Cumings, Univ. of Wash.

The Tuesday forums will be at 8:00 pm at the Downtown YMCA, 909 4th, between Marion and Madison.

For KRAB radio shows, here's the format: Every Monday at 7:30 pm, we will broadcast an introductory program featuring interviews with State Dept. officers responsible for policy on that topic. Then on Thursday at 9:30 pm and again Friday at 3:00 pm, we'll broadcast a tape of the Tuesday night forum. For details, see the program listings.

Towards a Grassroots Foreign Policy takes a vacation this month, and the radio shows will be replaced by past programs from this and other series on foreign policy and trilateralism. Again, see the program listings for details.

We will then return in January with one more program in the Trilateral Partnership cluster, a very important program on economic recovery and protectionism, featuring representatives from the AFL-CIO and Meyerhaeuser Co. If you would like more details on the series, please write or call me at KRAB, 325-5110.

This series is produced by KRAB and funded in part by a grant from the Washington Commission for the Humanities.

All KRAB listeners should be aware of the 15 year anniversary coming up in December. We only hope the next 15 are as eventful as the first...or do we?

LINER NOTES:

December promises to be an excellent month for KRAB listening. To begin with KRAB has 2 new regular programs worthy of mention: On Wednesday afternoons from 4-5:30, Kimson Plout presents an earth music show of ethnic and folk music from around the world, entitled simply enough, "Earth Music." Secondly, every Sunday at 6:00 pm is "Sunday Et Cetera," a new magazine of-the-air format program produced by Doug Ekblade and Kathy Bottoms.

Also, KRAB is pleased to be presenting some exciting special programming this month. The following is a brief sampling of what to look forward to:

KRAB's 15th Anniversary is this month and to celebrate, John Ross has produced a two-hour special highlighting some of the more outrageous moments in KRAB's history, Tues. Dec. 13, 7:30 pm.

A 3-part series on redlining will look at several aspects of this problem in depth. Presented on Dec. 6, 13 & 20th at 10:30 pm and produced by Nick Licata, Executive Director of WashPIRG.

An interview with Sam Lovejoy of "Lovejoy's Nuclear War" fame will be aired Fri., Dec. 2nd at 7:30 pm. Produced by Phil Andrus.

Denney Goodhew, one of the area's outstanding experimental jazz musicians, will be featured on Tuesday Night Live, Dec. 13th at 9:30 pm.

Count Carnette, a psychic pianist who claims to receive masterpieces from dead classical composers will discuss and play some of these pieces. Friday, Dec. 2, 8:15 pm.

Steve Hodes is producing a half-hour special on energy news updates of national and regional concern. To be aired Dec. 16 at 9:00 pm.

The Red Clay Ramblers and Ralph Stanley Seattle Concert of Nov. 5th will be aired Friday, Dec. 23 at 7:30 pm for blue grass fans who may have missed it or for those who want to hear it again.

Check the guide for further details on all these and other special programs.

10:00 MORNING READING

Kathy Bottoms reading from the stories of Dorothy Parker.

10:30 KRABJAZZ

Midday jazz of sufficient variety to suit most tastes. Chosen and discussed by Kirby Cooper.

2:00 THURSDAY AFTERNOON

At 2:30, an interview with John Molloy, author of the "Women's Dress for Success" book. At 4:00, the weekly film review with Richard Jamison and Kathleen Murphy; at 5:00, "Report to the Listener" with Station Manager Doug Ekblade. And music, with emphasis on the new and unusual, in between. Stu Witmer and Adam Woog host.

5:30 JAWBREAKER

"The Children of Llyn" retold by Evangeline Walton. The second branch of The Mabinogion, adventure stories from old Welsh mythology.

6:00 ALL OF US

Music relating to Black People throughout the world, with Daye.

7:00 INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Produced every weeknight at this time by John B. Smith and the International News staff.

7:30 EUROPE REVIEW

Recent events discussed by the KRAB International news staff.

8:00 THE IN CROWD

The only in-depth coverage of its kind in the Pacific N.W. Produced every weeknight at this time by John Smith and the International Newsies.

7:30 THEY'LL HAVE TO KILL ME TO BUILD THAT PLANT.
An interview with Sam Lovejoy, whose acts of civil disobedience helped initiate recent anti-nuclear power demonstrations in New Hampshire and around the country. On February 22, 1973, Sam toppled a 500' tower on the site of a proposed nuclear plant in Massachusetts. Since then, the plant has been delayed by a variety of environmental and economic concerns, while community opposition has grown. And over these 5 years, Sam has helped organize over 30 groups, each committed to the practice of non-violent civil disobedience in opposition to nuclear power.

8:15 COUNT CARNETTE: PSYCHIC PIANIST
An interview with Count Carnette, pianist and lecturer, who claims to receive new music from so-called "dead" composers. An untrained musician, he has played since the age of three and denies any responsibility for the brilliant new masterpieces he receives. Music from his recent recording will be played and Mr. Carnette discusses the topic of reincarnation and its influence upon his work.

9:30 SOUTHERN AFRICA SERIES

8:00 MY TWO YEARS IN THE WHITE HOUSE
In this lecture made at Seattle Univ. on Nov. 9, 1977, former White House Press Secretary Ron Nessen discusses how his years as a TV reporter and as a White House staffer have shaped his views of the media. Produced by George Behan.

9:00 CAPT. BALTIC'S BOP STOP
Realizing it has been seven years since the last Bop Stop to feature trombonist Jimmy Cleveland was aired, the Captain gives our ears a refresher course in the rapid sounds of one of the 50's better soloists on this difficult instrument.

10:30 BLUEPRINT FOR REDLINING
This begins a series of shows exploring the issue of redlining in Seattle. Tonight - "Redlining: What Is It?" Guests include Gary Clark from the City's Office of Policy Planning, a representative from the City's Human Rights Commission and a representative from the Central Seattle Community Council Federation. Produced by Nick Licata.

11:00 THE PROMISCUOUS DREAMER: Freddie, Meet Frank
Frederic Chopin has won world-wide fame for his ballades, preludes, and etudes for piano; it's not well-known that Frank Martin (Frahnhk Martin), contemporary Swiss composer, paid homage to the great Pole by writing works in the same forms. Therefore, when Paul Stanbery plays analyses by Thomas Scherman and Leonard Bernstein of Chopin's Ballades for piano, it's with the purpose of comparing them with the virtuoso works of Martin in which the orchestra accompanies flute, trombone, viola, and piano soli. Paul's first all-night tribute to Martin also features Concerti for harpsichord, piano (#2), 7 winds & tympani, violin, and cello; the famous Petite Symphonie Concertante for Harpsichord, Harp, Piano, and Strings; the retelling of the Tristan-Isolde legende in oratorio form, Le Vin Herbe (THE POTION) (a tribute to Wagner?), and Fischer-Dieskau's performance of the 6 monologues from the medieval morality play Everyman, all of which help locate the antecedents of Martin's quasi-dodecaphonic impressionism in the amazing chromatic aberrations of Chopin. (Believe it or not...)

Wednesday 7

Charlie Burks performs a ONE MAN SHOE! He is a Seattle poet, author of the play MARVIN, THE NEPHEW OF GOD, and coordinates WESTERN EDGE, a writers publication put out by Arts Resource Services. This feat was afoot on Oct. 2nd at the Different Drummer bookstore and recorded by Karen Berge.

3:00 OPEN TIME

3:30 BEAUTY AND THE BEAST

Ethnic and sub-ethnic music with Penny Maldonado.

5:30 JAWBREAKER

"The Children of Llyr" retold by Evangeline Walton. The second branch of The Mabinogion, adventure stories from old Welsh mythology.

6:00 CHICANO PERSPECTIVE

Produced at KRAB by Julio Guerrero and Radio Cadena; in English and Español.

7:00 INTERNATIONAL NEWS

In-depth analysis of international developments with John Smith and the news staff.

7:30 THE GREAT KRAB ANNIVERSARY PROGRAMME !!

Fifteen years ago this week, KRAB first offered its peculiar perspective on the art of radio to an unsuspecting (and largely uninterested) Seattle. To celebrate the fact that we have survived this long, we've dredged up some "highlights" of fifteen years of KRAB, and some memories of the things that never got recorded the first time around. During this two-hour wing-ding, we'll dredge up such great moments as The Great Piano Drop, The Man Who Lived in his Car, the infamous Sunday Show, and the Adventures of the World's Oldest Transmitter in Dampest Seattle.

9:30 TUESDAY NIGHT LIVE

Tonight, Seattle reedplayer Denney Goodhew gives a solo performances of improvisational works chiefly for alto saxophone. Goodhew is one of the area's outstanding experimental musicians, performing currently with the Seattle Composers and Improvisors Orchestra.

10:30 BLUEPRINT FOR REDLINING

"Displacing the Poor" - Tonight's program on redlining explores the question of whether housing rehabilitation programs displace poor people. Guests on this weeks show include a minister from a Central District church, and representatives from the Stevens and Mann-Minor Rehabilitation Programs. Produced by Nick Licata.

11:00 DAVID'S FANTASY

With David Bennett.

Wednesday 14

10:00 POST-MAO CHINA

Russ Terrill, a prominent China scholar, lectures on China without Mao. Held at the University of Washington Nov. 19 and sponsored by the Regional China Council Group.

11:00 ANDROSIA

An evening of old-time sacred music, presented by the Total Immersion Godless Anarchist Sacred Harp Shape Note Choir. Shape note singing was developed by itinerant preachers of the rural South, as a means of teaching hymns to people of limited musical backgrounds. The style, characterized by haunting four-part harmonies, reached its peak of popularity in 1844, with the publication of The Sacred Harp, a book of hymns. The tradition is still alive today, both in the congregations of some Southern churches, and in a few most godless but somewhat musical households on the West Coast.

10:00 MORNING READING

Barbara Ballard reads from such disparate sources as Eskimos, John Keats and N.W. Indians.

10:30 KRABJAZZ: THE INSIDE REAL

Jazz Degree Zero. With Herb Levy.

2:00 THE LAST PHONE-IN

A play about the host of an all-night phone-in show soon to be taken off the air. Like most programs of its kind, "Personal Calls" attracts its share of strange night owls and insomniacs. On the particular night the host finds both his patience and sanity tested. Written by Keith Waterhouse.

3:00 THE U.S., JAPAN, AND NE ASIA: THE IMPLICATIONS OF KOREA

A rebroadcast of Tuesday night's public forum (See Thursday 9:30 pm).

4:00 TRUEGRASS

7:30 LATIN AMERICA REVIEW
In-depth coverage of Latin American affairs. Produced by Polly Darte and Allen Sarno of the International News Team.

8:00 LECTURES FROM THE NORTHWEST MIND SYMPOSIUM (PART I)
On November 5, the Seattle Church of Religious Science and the Ernest Holmes Research Foundation presented a one-day symposium called "Mind Miraculous," featuring eminent researchers and practitioners of mind-power techniques. This lecture is by William Tiller, Stanford University metallurgist and consultant to government and industry. He is active in research and development of instruments which can reliably detect and record the movement of human energy, especially as it affects spiritual healing.

9:00 CAPT. BALTIC'S BOP STOP
Boniface Ferdinand Leonardo "Buddy" DeFranco, probably the only widely accepted bebop clarinetist during the late 40's and 50's, is heard. DeFranco is a musician with great technique, scope, imagination and tone, though Baltic finds him at times too cold and unemotional to suit his bebop bred brains....

10:30 BLUEPRINT FOR REDLINING
"Solving Redlining." This final show of the series will take a look at legislation passed on local, state and federal levels aimed at correcting redlining. Guests include John Eng, State Legislator from the 37th District (Central Area), Grover Barnes, Chairman of the Public Review Board, and a representative from the Lender's Review Board. Produced by Nick Licata.

11:00 THE PROMISCUOUS DREAMER: (Studies in Tinsellophilia, Pt. I) KRAB's Kristmas Surprise
Paul Stanbery's truly decadent tastes run riot this holiday season when he gives uninhibited all-night expression to his unadulterated (but nonetheless perverted) lust for pure Broadway and Hollywood tinsel and presents both soundtracks and original (1920's) London treatments of FUNNY FACE with Fred Astaire; George (Tubby the Tuba) Kleinsinger's setting for Carol Channing, Eddie Bracken, and David Wayne of Don Marquis' ARCHIE AND MEHITABEL; Carol Burnett in ONCE UPON A MATTRESS, a contemporary version of "The Princess and the Pea;" ninety minutes of music from Miklos Rozsa's score for BEN-HUR; and pseudo-intelligent arrangements of Christmas Carols by Walter (DRAGNET) Schumann and Andre (Pittsburg Symphony) Previn. Spoon up these fruit-cake-rich and nutty goodies if you dare!!! (Jeff Follette has been dedicated to this program (against his will).)

Wednesday 21

6:00 AM EARLY MUSIC
Featuring the BBC Radio Newsreel at 7:00, the weekly Book Review at 8:45 and music with Stu Witmer.

10:30 KRABJAZZ
The life and times of John Rogers, until two.

2:00 REQUEST A REQUEST
Use your radio subversively. Call 325-5110 with your request for the bizarre, the unique, the defunct, the replete. Ask for anything which shouldn't be on the radio.

4:00 EARTH MUSIC
Frequently from Brazil and Latin America, with Kimson Plout.

5:30 JAWBREAKER
"The Children of Llyr" retold by Evangeline Walton. The second branch of The Mabinogion, adventure stories from old Welsh mythology.

6:00 PLANXTY KRAB
Irish music and folklore.

Produced by Indians into Communication.

8:00 ENVIRONMENTAL NEWS
With Chris Miner.

8:30 ALSO ABSENTIA
Ethnic music with Judy Ellison.

10:00 UNCLE WALLY AND THE MEDIA
Tonight Walter Simon interviews Art Wicks. Presently assigned public affairs at KING-TV, Wicks along with his interviewer collaborated on a media project under the name of Herbert Charles. Herbert Charles, most recognized for his frog mask, tuxedo and web white glove outfit is perhaps Seattle's most noticed critic. Charles, while on earth, became a fleeting TV celebrity and subject of national newspaper exposure in obscure Arkansas hamlets and major market cities. Herbert Charles died in late September from intellectual stagnation on a speech never given, but carefully prepared for a real estate convention at the Olympic Hotel. No, Herbert Charles is not a punk rocker, neo-Dadist or anything but a gentle spoof on media and criticism. For those stunned by Herbert's form, enjoy a fabric discussion of his substance.

11:00 ANDROSIA
The Crabsheils come to KRAB, in the person of Dennis Bader and others of the Crabsheil Alliance. Remind me to send Dixy a copy of this guide.

Thursday 22

Music from Black Cultures around the world, with Daye.

7:00 THE INTERNATIONAL NEWS
Intense developments reported by John Smith and the International News Staff.

7:30 ASIAN REVIEW
Recent events are deftly probed and discussed by KRAB's brigade of international news experts.

8:00 THE IN CROWD
A conversation with Theron Morgan who is a Probation and Parole Officer, Office of Adult Probation and Parole, Adult Corrections Division, Department of Social and Health Services.

8:30 VINTAGE JAZZ
With Hal Sherlock.

9:30 FROM COLD WAR TO DÉTENTE: WHAT WAS THE NATURE OF "THE SOVIET THREAT?"
Towards a Grassroots Foreign Policy takes a vacation, so we'll play the November 1 forum which didn't get aired that week. Features Profs. Lyman Letgers and John Reshetar of the UW and Edward Bennett of WSU, on the origins and reality of the Cold War. Will be rebroadcast tomorrow at 3 p.m.

10:30 SONANCE PROJECT: PART II
Okay, now exhale loudly. This is the second half of Reese Williams' goofy tape composition using the odd possibilities inherent in the human voice and body.

11:00 VARIATIONS FOR A DOOR AND A SIGH
With Jeff Follette.

Friday 23

6:00 AM EARLY MUSIC
As your reward for almost making it through the week you can set your clock radio to your favorite music. Call Stu at 325-5110 any morning for a request today. BBC Radio Newsreel at 7:00.

Saturday 24

8:00 AM THAT'S THAT
Jazz and real facsimiles with Jeff Follette.

11:30 IAMB, SAID THE LAMB
Dylan Thomas recorded "A Child's Christmas in Wales" for Caedmon Records during his 1951 tour of the United States. Arriving at the recording studio, Thomas found he had left the short story in his hotel room; but went on to record this personal fable from memory. It's the nicest way the Lamb can think of to say, Merry Christmas.

12:00 CANTONESE TIME
Produced in Cantonese by Seattle Chinese Broadcast.

12:30 EMPHYRIO DUB
Reggae till the cows come home, with Karl and Leech.

2:00 EARTH MUSIC
With Howard Weiss.

3:00 SATURDAY AFTERNOON BLUES
Once more with feeling, and Jack Cook.

4:30 FRINGE BENEFIT
A Christmas Extravaganza - KRAB Style
The KRAB Spirit and the holiday spirit are not usually associated with each other. On today's program the merry Halina Pawl and jolly John Townes will rectify that situation -- somehow.

6:00 SURVIVING IN THE PATRIARCHY
Produced by Amazon Media.
